WHEN ATTENDING CHURCH CEREMONIES:

FROM 6 SEPTEMBER 2021: Religious ceremonies can take place with up to 50% of the place of worship's normal capacity. As 2 metre social distancing between households still applies, this will dictate the actual number that each church can accommodate.

The following precautions still remain in place:

- hand sanitisation
- wearing of face coverings
- Please do not come to church if you have any covid symptoms or if you are deemed a close contact.

People may also attend Mass by sitting in their cars outside churches and Holy Communion will be distributed. Thank you all for your assistance and patience in complying with these public health measures. Some further relaxation of restrictions will occur in October and we will keep you informed and we continue to endeavour to keep our churches as safe as possible.
