CHANGE OF VENUES AT SCOIL SAMHRAIDH WILLIE CLANCY 2018: Major reconstruction work at St Joseph's Secondary School, Spanish Point, means that this venue is not available for summer school classes this year. Fiddle tutors and students are advised to assemble at the Marquee in the GAA grounds, Spanish Point Rd, (which will be signposted), between 8.30am and 9.00am on Monday morning, 9th July. There they will be informed of the venues for grading and assignment to classes and stewards will be on hand to bring them to these designated venues in and around Miltown Malbay. People attending the harmonica workshops should go to the portacabin at the airfield in Spanish Point. This location will be signposted.

The singing workshops and Dúcahs an Cheoil programme will be located at the Church of Ireland and Church of Ireland Community Centre in Spanish Point. These locations will be signposted. The banjo classes will be located in Mullagh and students and tutors are advised to assemble at the Sports Centre, (which will be signposted), for grading and assignment to classes. Stewards will be on hand to bring people to the various venues around the village and on Sunday 8th July, at the same place, between 4.30pm-7.30pm. For convenience, it is advised that people register at these times.

COFFEE WEEKEND: There will be a coffee weekend held at the Clare 250 Cancer Centre, Ballygriffey on July 7th & 8th from 10am - 4pm. All proceeds will go towards the Clare 250 Lourdes Pilgrimage in September for those diagnosed with cancer. All are welcome.

PHOTO WORKSHOP: West Clare Family Resource Centre Older Persons Project will be running two Photo Workshops in the Community Centre, Kilrush in July.
