THE WEEDS AMONG THE WHEAT

In today's parable, the master invites us to be patient, because when the grain and the weeds sprout, they look very similar. In the same way, what sprouts up within us is not initially easy to identify. We have to wait and see what brings life and what takes it away. Only at that point will we be able to put things in order, distinguishing what helps us from what brings us harm.

Sometimes we are too hasty, it's true, but other times we risk waiting too long. There is a moment when we can see a clear difference between the weeds and the wheat, and when we do we have the responsibility of intervening.

This is the time of judgment. We need to take our time, like the mustard seed needs time to become like a tree and the yeast to make the dough rise. We need honesty in order to recognize that the weeds also grow in our own hearts. We need courage to make decisions when things have become clear. catholic-link.org
