PROPOSED UNDER-ROAD ELECTRICAL CABLE: News has come to light that Clare County Council intends to give a re-opening licence to a wind farm company to connect electricity to the National Grid. The route of this cable is from the Hand to Ennis via Connolly, Kilmaley & Inch. Any parishioners who will be affected by this should contact Clare County Council without delay. It is essential that people be informed about any traffic disruption, planning problems or water and electrical connection issues that may arise if this proposed project goes ahead. Any persons with objections to the project should do likewise.
