A flock that needs a shepherd

The church always needs good, caring and selfless shepherds who are sensitive to the needs of their flock as in the case of Jesus who had compassion on the people because “they were like sheep without a shepherd”. Such shepherds are ready to lay down their life for their sheep.

We pray that more people will answer Jesus' invitation to serve as good shepherds to his flock.

VOLUNTEER MINISTRIES: The Diocese of Killaloe will be launching its second Volunteer Ministry Training Programme this autumn. In the coming weeks people already involved in these ministries will speak at Masses across the diocese. The hope is that their testimonies will help raise awareness to the variety of ministries which people can volunteer for in their parish and pastoral area. Bishop Fintan will officially launch this ministry training later this autumn. For now all we ask is that you contemplate sharing their gifts and talents for the good of the faith community that we call the Diocese of Killaloe.
