Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Death is swallowed up in victory.” Yet, we can still kill with our words. “The test of a man is in his conversation.” By words we can cultivate friendship, foster a family or even enlarge the church.

Words are tools of communication, and communion. But when they become corrosive, artificial or untrue, we are using them to demolish each other.

Ash Wednesday

Our word “Lent” comes from an old English word “Lencten”, meaning to lengthen or grow longer. These days, at least in the northern hemisphere, each day there are two minutes more light in the morning and two minutes more light in the evening. So, “Lent” really means springtime. This tells us precisely what is supposed to happen in this springtime of faith: new shoots, new growth, signs of life and joy. So, whatever I undertake this Lent, may it lead to a new springtime of faith for me and my community. Lent begins with Ash Wednesday this week on March 5th.

TROCAIRE LENTEN CAMPAIGN 2025.

Almsgiving is an integral part of the life of every Christian. Lent is one of the times when we give it a little more focus. In the Catholic church in Ireland we focus our almsgiving efforts on the work of Trocaire who ensure that your donations are put to good use where people are most challenged throughout the world. Our Trocaire collection in this parish will be on May 11th. Many people still like to use the “trocaire box” throughout lent. Information packs with the boxes included are available to take away with you.

Please pray for the happy repose of the soul of;
† David Geraghty Ennis & formerly of Glenamaddy, father of Brian Geraghty, Connolly.
We offer our condolences to his family and friends.
