Even the wind and sea obey him!

The gist of today's Gospel is found in the last sentence of the parable, "Who can this be? Even the wind and sea obey him". Mark answers this question in his Gospel by revealing the "messianic secret". Mark is telling us that Jesus as the Messiah of suffering and death will not take away the pain, the struggle, the hardship, the suffering—the storms of life. This sentiment is echoed by St Paul in the second reading: that we do not look upon Jesus as a wonder worker, but rather as the crucified one who offered himself in love; this great love of Jesus is what impels us to live by his values. For Paul, as for Mark, our salvation is not a glorious salvation but one that is fully human, carried out amidst the storms of life.
